LUTHERLYN IS GOING TO LUTHER LAND!

So much of the Lutherlyn experience is about community... the feeling of being accepted, loved, and welcomed into the camp community and allowed to learn and grow in a safe environment. For summer campers, that community experience takes place at 500 Lutherlyn Lane. In September of 2026, we are taking that community to Germany! You are invited (adults 18 and older) to be a part of an intentional community traveling together. Prior to our adventure, we will take some time to get to know each other (including a few optional gatherings prior to the trip). Then, we will spend 10 days together experiencing Life-Changing Adventures in Faith in Deutschland. We hope you will join us for this exciting journey!

Tour Itinerary

B- Breakfast, L-Lunch, D-Dinner

Day 1, Depart U.S.A. to Frankfurt, Germany

Day 2, Arrive Frankfurt Germany, Herzlich Willkommen in Deutschland! (B, D)

Upon arrival the group will be met at the airport by our professional European tour manager who will accompany the group throughout the journey. Your tour manager will escort the group to the waiting private motor coach. You begin your journey with a drive to the city of Mainz, along the Neckar River, where the Roman relics give away the fact of its 2000-year heritage! After the long flight you will welcome the opportunity to stretch your legs as the tour manager leads the group on a walking tour through the old town with its magnificent baroque buildings; including a visit to the 1000-year-old Romanesque Mainz Cathedral to view the world-famous Chagall windows and Eduard Kreyssig's huge neo-Renaissance cupola of Christchurch at St. Stephan Church. Afterwards, the group will check-in to the hotel, have time to freshen up before gathering for our "welcome to Germany" dinner. Overnight Mainz

Day 3, Worms, Winery Visit and Tasting, Heidelberg (B, L)

Today we begin our journey along the Reformation Road with a visit to the city of Worms. Worms is the location where Luther was summoned in 1521 to appear before an Imperial Diet to justify his conduct. We visit the world's largest Memorial to the Reformation, the Church of the Holy Trinity, and St. Peter's Cathedral- one of the most exquisite examples of Romanesque architecture. We'll learn more about another Reformer, William Tyndale, who finished his printing of the English Bible in Worms, escaping persecution in England. In 1525 his New Testament was printed and smuggled back into England. It was the first translation of the Bible from the original Greek into English (known to be the first translation of a Greek book into English.)

Next, enjoy a picturesque drive through the gentle landscape of budding vineyards and fertile orchards of the wine region. This afternoon we visit a local winery and vineyards to learn more about the history of wine-making in this region, including wine tastings and lunch with regional cuisine.

We complete our day in the city of Heidelberg, a lovely town on the Neckar River. Our guide will lead a walking tour to the Reformation memorial site in University Square commemorating the important first steps of the Reformation. Even back in Luther's day, student life shaped Heidelberg, Germany's oldest university town. It was in a room of this university, where Luther presented his beliefs to the Augustinian Order in 1518, shortly after nailing his theses to the door of the castle church in Wittenberg. We return to Mainz for the evening, dinner is on your own to dine at the hotel or one of the local restaurants in the market center. Your tour manager will provide dining suggestions within walking distance of the hotel. Overnight Mainz

Day 4, Mainz Gutenberg Museum- World's First Printed Bible, "Rhine In Flames" River Cruise (B)

After a full German breakfast, the group begins the day with a visit to the Gutenberg Museum, to view the 2-copies of the Bible, centuries-old manuscripts and the printing presses. This afternoon is at leisure. The group will depart later in the afternoon for a very special evening event "Fireworks on the Rhine" River Cruise! An unforgettable sightseeing cruise along the Rhine River, complete with a music-synchronous fireworks display. Around 50 ships decorated with colorful lights travel along one of the most picturesque stretches of this majestic Rhine waterway past magnificent castles and the fascinating backdrop of the Loreley Rock that shines in Bengal red. Overnight Mainz

Day 5, Wartburg Castle Eisenach, Bach Museum (B, D)

This morning the group will visit the magnificent Wartburg Castle. It was here where Luther took refuge while translating the New Testament into the German language. Our guided castle tour includes the chapel, and the Luther Room where "Junker Jörg" translated the Bible. Afterwards enjoy a short 30- minute leisurely walk downhill along the Luther Weg "Luther Way" along the path walked by Luther from the Wartburg to Eisenach. Or you may ride the coach down the hill to the city center.

After a some time at leisure for lunch, the group will visit at Bach Museum, which houses an extensive collection of instruments from the 16-19th century, including a musical performance on historical instruments. Our group will continue on to Erfurt for the next two nights. After hotel check-in the group will meet for dinner. Overnight Erfurt

Day 6, Erfurt (B)

After breakfast your tour manager will lead a walking tour of the city including the medieval Kramer Bridge, the ensemble of the Church of St. Severus and St. Mary's Cathedral (where Luther was ordained), the Augustinian Monastery where Luther lived as a monk from 1505-1511 and where he studied, worshiped, and was inspired to create the "Luther Rose". This afternoon you will have time to enjoy this beautiful city at leisure. Dinner is on your own to dine at the hotel or one of the local restaurants in the market center. Your tour manager will provide dining suggestions within walking distance of the hotel. Overnight Erfurt

Day 7, Veste Coburg (B)

Today you have a choice, time at leisure to explore Erfurt on your own, or join the tour manager for a drive to nearby Coburg and a visit to the Veste Coburg, the fortress where Luther took refuge and lived during the drafting of the Augsburg Confession. In addition to the Luther Chapel, the many artifacts and art treasures, you will also view the beautiful and inspiring painted walls and ceiling of Lucas Cranach the Elder. Return to Erfurt for the evening. Overnight Erfurt

Day 8, Eisleben, Lutherstadt Wittenberg (B)

Today we continue our journey in the footsteps of Martin Luther to Lutherstadt Eisleben, Luther's hometown and place where he spent his first and final days. Here we visit the houses where Luther was born in 1483, and where he died in 1546, St. Peter and Paul Church where Luther was baptized and St. Andrew Church where Luther preached his last four sermons and where his body laid in state. After a break for lunch the group continues to Lutherstadt Wittenberg, known as the "cradle of the Reformation." We'll check in to our hotel. Dinner this evening is on your own at the hotel restaurant or one of the local restaurants with some of your new friends.

Overnight Wittenberg

Day 9, Wittenberg, W.E.M. Worship Service (B, D)

We awake in Lutherstadt Wittenberg, home to some of the most historic sights of Luther's life and work. A local guide will lead our walking tour of the city including the places where Luther walked with his fellow Reformation colleagues. We visit the awe-inspiring Schlosskirche and its historic 95 theses door, St. Mary's Church where Luther preached and the location of the beautiful Reformation theme altar painted by Lucas Cranach. Next, visit the Reformation Museum, home to the largest collection of Reformation artifacts in the world- and learn more about Luther's family life, notably his wife, Katharina von Bora, and how she set the model for the Christian family and businesswomen. After our tour the group will attend worship service at one of the churches where Luther preached. This evening our group will gather for a farewell dinner at one of the local restaurants. Overnight Wittenberg
